

First Stop: Rivers Crossing

The first Neighborhood Beer Garden starts this week!

The Beer Garden will be held at Rivers Crossing Park (3703 Rivers Crossing Drive).

The hours are Thursday and Friday from 5pm - 9pm and Saturday from 3pm - 9pm.

There are no parking or entrance fees and plenty of food and live music all weekend long!

The next Beer Garden will be September 6-8 at Merrill Crest Park.

Happy 100 years!

Though it has moved locations a few times to best respond to growth in the City, a Fire Station #2 for the City of Waukesha has been in operation for 100 years!

Check out the video highlighting 100 years of Station #2. The Fire Department will be holding a small reception to celebrate today at 2pm at Fire Station #2 (1714 Pearl Street). All are welcome.

Pedestrian Bridges

The City has completed both of the below projects on pedestrian bridges. They are now open! Thanks for your patience.

- Grede Park to Bethesda Park (across Fox River)
- Glacial Drumlin Bike Trail (between College Ave. and MacArthur Rd.)

Register of Historic Places

The Landmarks Commission is hosting an informational meeting on adding properties to the National Register of Historic Places. Joe Derosé from the Wisconsin Historic Preservation Office will give a presentation and answer questions. All are invited!

- Thursday, August 23 at 6pm in City Hall, Room 207

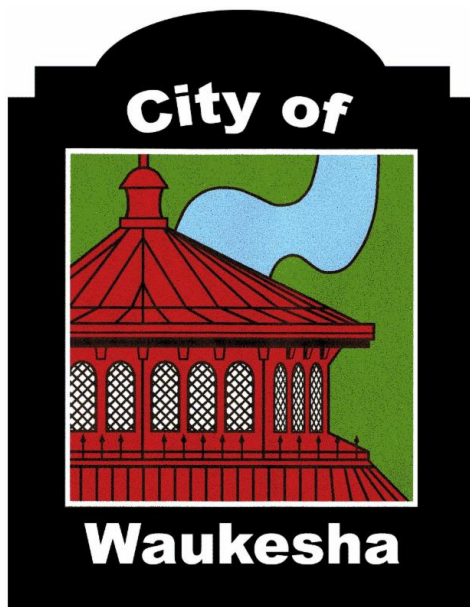

Monday Night at the Movies

This coming Monday Night, August 27, enjoy Cars III at Cutler Park.

Come early for a "Kids are People Too!" DJ show at 6:30pm, followed by the movie at 8pm.

This is the last movie for the season.
